

411 Hotlinks! Your Source for Quick Information about the Macomb Reading and Writing Studios and How We Can Support you at MCC!

Welcome! We are excited you have made the choice to begin your college career at Macomb. Whether you are writing a response to an online discussion board, an email to a professor, a research paper, or navigating dense passages in your college ready, please know that the consultants at the Reading and Writing Studios are eager and available to listen to support you as you develop familiarity with these new genres. Moving from global issues—like genre and main ideas—to smaller issues, such as grammar and punctuation, we are here to listen and brainstorm with you and to coach you as you try on new language strategies and adapt to new expectations each assignment may present. Below, we provide a few quick links to showcase some of the supports we offer.

Scheduling an Appointment with a Literacy Consultant

Click the image below to learn about the kinds of appointments we provide at this time.

To Make an Appointment go to <http://mywco.com/macomb> and register for an account today!

Accessing Videos and Handouts 24/7!

Visit our Canvas Site to access additional videos handouts to support you at every stage of your college reading and writing.

Some commonly used resources:

- Strategies for Reading and Writing Online (includes FREE ACCESS to digital annotation software!)
- Academic Integrity and Citation Common Writing Genres at Macomb Community College
- Organizing and Using Graphic Organizers
- Creating Effective Transitions
- (MLA, APA, and Chicago Style formatting and recommendations for using sources).

and

